The Department of African American Studies
Petition for Special Studies Course
AAS 299: Independent Studies for Graduate Students

Due: The third week of classes

AAS 299 courses are faculty supervised independent studies for graduate students. Student enrolled in 299's must be in good academic standing (3.0 GPA). Each student enrolled in an Independent Study Course must have prior consent of the instructor who is to supervise the study.

Approval by the chair of the department must be obtained on the basis of a written proposal that specifies the nature of the study, the number of units to be credited, and the basis for grading. Note: These classes may not be taken for a letter grade.

Attach a description of project proposal to this petition and keep a copy for your use. Return petition and proposal to the African American Studies Department, 660 Barrows Hall, for chair's approval no later than the third week of classes.
