The Department of African American Studies Petition for Exemption from Core Course Requirement

This form must be completed by students wishing to earn an exemption from one of the core course requirements of African American Studies. For both African American Studies majors and minors, exemptions will only be granted when students take a department-approved corresponding course, either at UC Berkeley or another institution, and pass it with a grade of a C or better. A petition must be submitted and a decision made before the beginning of the student's last term at Berkeley.

Please submit with this form, copies of the course description and syllabus. If copies of the course description and syllabus are not submitted, this petition will not be considered.
